And pray for the family and friends of those who have recently died

Please contact Cynthia or the Office if you would like someone prayed for.

For sale: A place on the Diocesan pilgrimage to Iona dates: October 20th-25th 2021.

Single room with sea view - One careful previous owner! Beth was due to go on this pilgrimage led by Bishop Karen. It has already been postponed from this year to next. A few other Clarendon folk are also booked to go. Beth has discovered that the Whitton Team has a parish weekend booked for the same dates, so is now unable to go. For further information and costs please contact Revd Beth.

Jesus answered him,
'Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah!
For flesh and blood has not revealed
this to you,
but my Father in heaven.

Matthew 16.13-20

Away...

Just to let you know that Revd Simon will be on Holiday this week on a well earned break - do contact Jolande in the office, or Revd Beth if there is anything urgent.

Next Week is a Joint Eucharist at Farley All Saints.

10am service at Farley All Saints. This service will be led by Revd Beth and will be the last Team service before she leaves us in the middle of October to move to Whitton

Face coverings in our church services are mandatory unless you have legitimate reason not to.

In all our services masks will be provided if you have not brought one. Those who are leading the services or assisting do not need to wear face coverings to assist those who rely on lip-reading, facial expressions or clear sound. You recommend you use hand sanitiser before removing and putting your face covering to receive communion.

Worship at Home.

Worship at Home resources including service sheet, and link for video. This week Mike Morgan-Jones reads, Revd Cynthia gives the reflection and Revd Jane leads the prayers.

for this Sunday can be found at <https://ClarendonCofE.org/200823>

If it's not in the on-line diary then we don't know it is happening. Please check at <http://ClarendonCofE.org> and put your events in the diary so we all know

If you would like something added to this pew sheet please contact Simon or Jolande in the office.

23 August 2020 - Eleventh Sunday after Trinity

The Collect

O God, you declare your almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace, that we, running the way of your commandments, may receive your gracious promises, and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Isaiah 51.1-6

Listen to me, you that pursue righteousness,
you that seek the LORD.
Look to the rock from which you were hewn,
and to the quarry from which you were dug.
Look to Abraham your father
and to Sarah who bore you;
for he was but one when I called him,
but I blessed him and made him many.
For the LORD will comfort Zion;
he will comfort all her waste places,
and will make her wilderness like Eden,
her desert like the garden of the LORD;
joy and gladness will be found in her,
thanksgiving and the voice of song.

Listen to me, my people,
and give heed to me, my nation;
for a teaching will go out from me,
and my justice for a light to the peoples.
I will bring near my deliverance swiftly,
my salvation has gone out
and my arms will rule the peoples;
the coastlands wait for me,
and for my arm they hope.
Lift up your eyes to the heavens,
and look at the earth beneath;
for the heavens will vanish like smoke,
the earth will wear out like a garment,
and those who live on it will die like gnats;
but my salvation will be for ever,
and my deliverance will never be ended.

Second Reading

Romans 12.1-8

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God – what is good and acceptable and perfect. For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgement, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

Gospel

Matthew 16.13-20

When Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, 'Who do people say that the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Simon Peter answered, 'You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.' And Jesus answered him, 'Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.' Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

Post Communion Prayer

Lord of all mercy,
we your faithful people have celebrated
that one true sacrifice
which takes away our sins and brings
pardon and peace:
by our communion
keep us firm on the foundation of the gospel
and preserve us from all sin;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
