please contact Simon or Jolande in the office.

Next week we join together on-line for Lisa's ordination service at the Cathedral. Due to restrictions it is not possible to go in person, although Simon and Jane need to be there supporting her in her ministry. Details of how to join in will be given in next week's ChurchConnect and you will also be able to watch later as the service is being recorded.

Because of this next week we have reduced services across our churches and we join together at Farley at 11:00am for a joint communion service.

Stained Glass window for Pitton School

Together with the House Captains in Pitton First School, Revd David has been working on this piece of art for some months now. It is a 'stained glass' style artwork which hangs in the main school corridor to greet all visitors and children alike. The art is quite large at 1m square and hangs where the sunlight will really illuminate it

... they woke him up and said to him,
'Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?' He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea,
'Peace! Be still!'

Mark 4.35-41

Children Reading Scripture

Simon will be presenting 32 Bibles to Year 3 children at Winterslow School this week. They will use these bibles for their studies till they leave school and then they will be represented at the leaver's service for them to keep. This is a great way for us to connect with our school children and thanks for Winterslow PCC for again funding these bibles.

Face coverings in our church services are still mandatory unless you have legitimate reason not to.

20 June 2021 - Third Sunday after Trinity

The Collect

Almighty God,
you have broken the tyranny of sin and have sent the Spirit of your Son into our hearts whereby we call you Father: give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service, that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Job 38.1-11

The LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind:
'Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge?
Gird up your loins like a man, I will question you, and you shall declare to me.
'Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth?
Tell me, if you have understanding.
Who determined its measurements – surely you know!
Or who stretched the line upon it?
On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy?

'Or who shut in the sea with doors when it burst out from the womb? – when I made the clouds its garment, and thick darkness its swaddling band, and prescribed bounds for it,
and set bars and doors, and said, "Thus far shall you come, and no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stopped"?'

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 6.1-13

As we work together with Christ, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain. For he says, 'At an acceptable time I have listened to you, and on a day of salvation I have helped you.' See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation! We are putting no obstacle in anyone's way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, riots, labours, sleepless nights, hunger; by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, holiness of spirit, genuine love, truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; in honour and dishonour, in ill repute and good repute.

We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; as unknown, and yet are well known; as dying, and see – we are alive; as punished, and yet not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

We have spoken frankly to you Corinthians; our heart is wide open to you. There is no restriction in our affections, but only in yours. In return – I speak as to children – open wide your hearts also.

Gospel

Mark 4.35-41

When evening had come, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us go across to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great gale arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, 'Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?' He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, 'Peace! Be still!' Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, 'Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?'
And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, 'Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?'

Post Communion Prayer

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining and whose power we cannot comprehend:
show us your glory as far as we can grasp it, and shield us from knowing more than we can bear until we may look upon you without fear; through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.
