This Week's Eco Tip: Gardening Tips

Provide all year food for pollinating insects.

With the decline of traditional food sources, such as hay meadows, hedges and flower-rich habitats, pollinating insects have an unstable food supply. Therefore, it is worthwhile to try to provide suitable nectar-rich plants and shrubs in our garden to sustain them throughout the year. Suitable plants could include:

Spring- hellebores, pulmonarias, muscari, bluebells, crocuses, pussy willow, alders. Summer- sunflowers, campanulas, sweet peas, cornflowers, honeysuckles, nasturtiums, lantana, also most herbs, if allowed to flower. Autumn- fuchias, salvias, sedums, ivy, asters, anemones, heleniums, heathers. Winter-mahonias, winter honeysuckles, aconites, snowdrops, winter-flowering clematis. Try to provide flowers with an open structure, especially those which are rich in nectar. Aim to plant in clumps, if possible, but planting in containers, pots and baskets is also suitable. Mowing the lawn less frequently will allow so-called weeds such as clove or daises to thrive, less weeding of flowerbeds is also beneficial to pollinators. The RHS 'Perfect for pollinators' or 'Plants for pollinators' tags indicate suitable plants to purchase.

Organ Recital Performed by David Halls and John Challenger

(Salisbury Cathedral Director and Assistant Director of Music)
Friday 7 October at 12.30 - 1.30pm
Salisbury Cathedral School Chapel

This free recital is part of Salisbury Cathedral School's first Organ-a-thon. The Organ-a-thon will see the school's Peter Collins Pipe Organ played throughout the day on Friday 7 October to introduce all pupils to the instrument and help raise funds for necessary repairs and restoration, as well as support new Organ Scholarships. The concert is free to attend but you will be able to donate on the day if you'd like help.

It is rare opportunity to see the historic Chapel in the Bishop's Palace, which is currently home to Salisbury Cathedral School, and to hear such talented musicians in such an intimate venue. As the concert takes place during the school day, we respectfully ask all attendees to RSVP in advance to Rowen Gower:

The Collect

God, who in generous mercy sent the Holy Spirit
upon your Church in the burning fire of your love:
grant that your people may be fervent
in the fellowship of the gospel
that, always abiding in you,
they may be found steadfast in faith and active in service;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Amos 6.1a,4-7

Thus says the Lord, the God of hosts:
Alas for those who are at ease in Zion,
and for those who feel secure on Mount Samaria!
Alas for those who lie on beds of ivory,
and lounge on their couches,
and eat lambs from the flock,
and calves from the stall;
who sing idle songs to the sound of the harp,
and like David improvise on instruments of music;
who drink wine from bowls,
and anoint themselves with the finest oils,
but are not grieved over the ruin of Joseph!
Therefore they shall now be the first to go into exile,
and the revelry of the loungers shall pass away.

Second Reading

1 Timothy 6.6-19

There is great gain in godliness combined with contentment; for we brought nothing into the world, so that we can take nothing out of it; but if we have food and clothing, we will be content with these. But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, and in their eagerness to be rich some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pains.

But as for you, man of God, shun all this; pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life, to which you were called and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. In the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you to keep the commandment without spot or blame until the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ, which he will bring about at the right time – he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords. It is he alone who has immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see; to him be honour and eternal dominion. Amen.

As for those who in the present age are rich, command them not to be haughty, or to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but rather on God who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share, thus storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of the life that really is life.

Gospel

Luke 16.19-31

Jesus told this parable to those among the Pharisees who loved money: 'There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man's table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores. The poor man died and was carried away by the angels to be with Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried. In Hades, where he was being tormented, he looked up and saw Abraham far away with Lazarus by his side. He called out, "Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in agony in these flames." But Abraham said, "Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony. Besides all this, between you and us a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who might want to pass from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us." The man who had been rich said, "Then, father, I beg you to send him to my father's house - for I have five brothers - that he may warn them, so that they will not also come into this place of torment." Abraham replied, "They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them." He said, "No, father Abraham; but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent." Abraham said to him, "If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.'"

Post Communion Prayer

Keep, O Lord, your Church, with your perpetual mercy;
and, because without you

our human frailty cannot but fall,
keep us ever by your help from all things hurtful,
and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
