Well Done Debbie

Debbie Mclsaac will be awarded The Aldhelm Cross at Salisbury Cathedral's Evensong today at 4:30pm. The Aldhelm Cross Award will be presented to five people in total from churches across the diocese for going far beyond what is expected in their contribution to the life of the diocese. Debbie has made a huge contribution as a member of the House of Laity of General Synod, Diocesan Synod and Bishop's Council, as well as in our own deanery as Lay Chair and in our team of churches. She has represented lay people in the diocese in several capacities, and has been awarded a Cross of St Aldhelm for this work and for her contribution to the diocese as a member of House of Laity of General Synod, Diocesan Synod, and Bishop's Council. Debbie's careful study of the issues, attention to detail and wisdom in these forums are a huge contribution to helping ensure that there is proper governance and that decisions are properly taken and for good reason.

All Welcome to the service at the Cathedral today at 4:30pm.

All Souls Service

This afternoon there is a service for All Souls Day at All Saint's Winterslow.

This is a service of reflection with hymns and prayersto remember those who have died both recently or a longer time.

Names will be read out and candles lit, and you are very welcome to come and add a name to the list and join us for this service of hymns readings and prayers.

Note this service is for all four of our churches, and we will welcome those who have been specifically invited for this service.

30 October 2022 - All Saints' Day

The Collect

Almighty God,
you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord:
grant us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
Amen.

First Reading

Daniel 7.1-3,15-18

Second Reading

Ephesians 1.11-23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Gospel

Luke 6.20-31

Then Jesus looked up at his disciples and said:

'Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

'Blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled.

'Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

'Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice on that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.

'But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.

'Woe to you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

'Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you will mourn and weep.

'Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

'But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

Post Communion Prayer

God, the source of all holiness and giver of all good things:
may we who have shared at this table
as strangers and pilgrims here on earth be welcomed with all your saints to the heavenly feast on the day of your kingdom;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
