FOR YOUR PRAYERS THIS WEEK:

Please pray for those who are sick including:

Max Parker & Natalie Moss.

And pray for the family and friends
of those who have recently died

Elaine Holme, Nick Warner

Please contact Cynthia, Simon or the Office
if you would like someone prayed for.

Each week we have an Eco Tip for the Congregation from Carmen
and the EcoChurch group:

This Week's Eco Tip: Lighting

It may be an old tip but, energy-saving light bulbs
last up to 12 times as long as traditional bulbs,
providing the same amount of light quality for much less energy. 80% of the energy used to power traditional bulbs is lost in heating energy, whereas LED light bulbs run at 80-90% energy efficiency.

According to the Energy Saving Trust, they can reduce your carbon emissions by up to 40kg a year.

Is there a lightbulb in your home which you have meant to change to an LED bulb for a long time but just not got round to it? - maybe do it this week.

Coffee Morning in aid of DEC (Earthquake Appeal)

Please come to our coffee morning at Whitehill Lodge, Pitton.
There will be a bring and buy stall, and a raffle, as well as a warm welcome. In view of the earthquake disaster in Turkey and Syria our proceeds will now go to this appeal, not St.
Peter's. If you cannot attend and wish to donate then please pop in an envelope and put through the door or give to one of the PCC.

THANK YOU.

Lay Pastoral Assistant away day

We've had an excellent uptake of LPAs for our Away Day on March 1st and we've now opened the remaining few spaces to any congregation member in the Alderbury Deanery who would like to attend the day (9.30am to 4pm). There will be talks on prayer, listening, and the pastoral care of the bereaved and those with dementia and their families. There will be time for prayer, walks in the garden and creative activities. The cost for the day is £10. All are welcome. If you're interested, please contact Revd Lisa Rodrigues lisa@clarendoncofe.org or phone 07867 412 034.

12 February 2023 - Second Sunday before Lent

The Collect

Almighty God,
you have created the heavens and the earth
and made us in your own image:
teach us to discern your hand in all your works
and your likeness in all your children;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who with you and the Holy Spirit reigns
supreme over all things,
now and for ever.
Amen.

First Reading

Genesis 1.1-2.3

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, 'Let there be light'; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

And it was so. God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their multitude. And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation.

Second Reading

Romans 8.18-25

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God; for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labour pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Gospel

Matthew 6.25-34

Jesus taught his disciples, saying: 'Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you— you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, "What will we eat?" or "What will we drink?" or "What will we wear?" For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring worries of its own. Today's trouble is enough for today.'

Post Communion Prayer

God our creator,
by your gift
the tree of life was set at the heart of the earthly paradise,
and the bread of life at the heart of your Church:
may we who have been nourished at your table on earth
be transformed by the glory of the Saviour's cross
and enjoy the delights of eternity;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
