Max Parker & Natalie Moss.

And pray for the family and friends
of those who have recently died

Rodney White, Bryan Jackson

Please contact Simon or the Office if you would like someone prayed for.

Bryan Jackson's Funeral

will be at St Peter's Pitton
at 1:30pm on the 8th September

Breakfast Church

Winterslow will hold a Breakfast church on the 17th September in the Village Hall. A great breakfast will be served together with a short act of worship at 9:30am - all welcome. As this is a non communion service next week there will be a Eucharist at All Saints in place of the Morning Worship

Harvest Festivals

Winterslow: Sunday 1st October at 9:15am
Farley: Sunday 1st October at 11:00am
Pitton: Sunday 8th October at 11:00am

Each week we have an Eco Tip for the Congregation from Carmen
and the EcoChurch group:

This Week's Eco Tip: Around the House

Switch to an eco toilet roll. For some reason in the UK we use a lot of toilet roll, 2.5 times more than the European average!

There are so many eco options available now, some are made from completely recycled material but may be individually wrapped, some are made from bamboo so free of chemicals and good for sensitive skin but may be in plastic. So many out there with different positives, all are a step in the right direction.
of course you could just try and use less.

Book, Cake and Puzzle sale

will be this Saturday 9th September at St John's School Room Winterslow from 10 till noon

The Wiltshire Ride and Stride is on the 9th September. Do look out for sponsorship forms for those taking part or consider walking for our churches.

Each church receives half the amount raised and the other half goes to Wiltshire Historic Churches Trust who give grants to our churches for important repair work.

The Collect

Almighty God,
who called your Church to bear witness that you were in Christ reconciling the world to yourself:
help us to proclaim the good news of your love,
that all who hear it may be drawn to you;
through him who was lifted up on the cross,
and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Jeremiah 15.15-21

O LORD, you know;
remember me and visit me,
and bring down retribution for me on my persecutors.
In your forbearance do not take me away;
know that on your account I suffer insult.
Your words were found, and I ate them,
and your words became to me a joy
and the delight of my heart;
for I am called by your name,
O LORD, God of hosts.
I did not sit in the company of merrymakers,
nor did I rejoice;
under the weight of your hand I sat alone,
for you had filled me with indignation.
Why is my pain unceasing,
my wound incurable,
refusing to be healed?
Truly, you are to me like a deceitful brook,
like waters that fail.

Therefore, thus says the LORD:
If you turn back, I will take you back,
and you shall stand before me.
If you utter what is precious, and not what is worthless,
you shall serve as my mouth.
It is they who will turn to you,
not you who will turn to them.
And I will make you to this people
a fortified wall of bronze;
they will fight against you,
but they shall not prevail over you,
for I am with you to save you and deliver you, says the LORD.
I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked,
and redeem you from the grasp of the ruthless.

Second Reading

Romans 12.9-21

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honour. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers.

Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, 'Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord.' No, 'if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads.' Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Gospel

Matthew 16.21-28

From that time on, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, 'God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you.' But he turned and said to Peter, 'Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling-block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.'

Then Jesus told his disciples, 'If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life? For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.'

Post Communion Prayer

God our creator,
you feed your children with the true manna,
the living bread from heaven:
let this holy food sustain us through our earthly pilgrimage
until we come to that place
where hunger and thirst are no more;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
